Since the chief and other firemen at the central station in St. Johnsbury have been granted an increase in pay, the call men have also put in a bid for more money.

The school board of Bellows Falls has voted to have a double session of school and not a single session, as had been considered. Of the parents, 145 desired a two-session day and 118 were in favor of a solid session.

Work on the Mount Mansfield road is progressing rapidly and it will soon be comfortable for ordinary autos Many have already climbed to the summit and a Chandler car went to the top last Sunday without heating the engine.

Clarence LaPlant, the 12-year-old Rutland boy, who had been missing from home since Tuesday, was located in Burlington Thursday with his father, who had not lived in Rutland for eight years. His mother, who lives in Rutland, will allow him to remain with his father.

The population of Windham county 8 26,373, as compared with 26,932 in 1910, a loss of 559, or 2.1 per cent. Brattleboro, Rockingham, Dover, Somerset, Stratton and Wilmington made rains, while the seven other towns lost. Brattleboro's population is 8,332, as compared with 7,541 ten years ago.

Customs men at the Boston & Maine and Canadian Pacific depot in Newport last Wednesday night found two suit cases containing 271/2 quarts of hard liquor under a seat in the smoking division of a Pullman sleeping car. None of the passengers claimed the liquor and no one acted suspiciously, so nothing could be done by the officials except to remove the suit cases.

Mrs. L. D. Hibbard, Mrs. Ellen M. Johnson and Miss Emma Ford, all of Burlington and all over 60 years of age, on Tuesday climbed six and onehalf miles from Morse's mill- to the Taft lodge on Mount Mansfield and then one and one-half miles to the Summit house, where they stayed over night and Wednesday walked to Stowe village, a distance of 10 miles.

John M. Hubbard, a Saxtons River man, who has been in the postal service in Chicago for 49 years, retired from office as assistant postmaster August 20, leaving because he has reached the age limit prescribed for retirement. He is coming back to Saxtons River. Mr. Hubbard entered the overnment service as a mail distributor in 1871, when he was 24. In 1889 he was appointed assistant postmaster, which position he has since held.

OSTEOPATHS PROTEST.

Against Being Barred from Medical Hospitals.

The Vermont State Osteopathic association has adopted resolutions protesting against the action of the social education committee of the National Young Women's Christian association because in its health center movement it has violated the principle of democracy, discriminating against osteopathic physicians.

The National Red Cross also comes in for lively criticism by the Vermont Osteopathic association, which has just adopted resolutions denouncing the "flagrant injustice" of the Red Cross in denying legally authorized physicians any privilege of serving the afflicted by excluding from service in American Red Cross emergency hos-ly qualified osteopathic physicians and surgeons is claimed by the Vermont association regarding the organized conspiracy to bar out osteopaths from Not Open."
